A White Glow in the Pupil Could Be a Sign of a Serious Eye Problem

Do you see what I see in this photo?

A white glow could be a sign of cataract, retinal problems, or even eye cancer (retinoblastoma). It could also be a camera glow that means nothing. Check your photos. Let us not lose precious time.

IF YOU SEE A WHITE GLOW, SEE AN EYE M.D.